NAFB Announces 2010 Hall of Fame Inductees

August 26, 2010 – PLATTE CITY, MO – The National Association of Farm Broadcasting will honor two of its finest at the Night of Honors Celebration Banquet, Thursday, November 11 at the 66th Annual NAFB Convention.

Taylor Brown and Gene Millard have been voted into the NAFB Hall of Fame by the Hall of Fame Selection Committee—a working group of five individuals composed of Hall of Fame members and current and past Presidents.

Taylor Brown, owner and president of Northern Broadcasting System, Inc. in Billings, Montana, has put his stamp on the farm broadcasting industry since his start in 1979. In 1989 he was named NAFB Farm Broadcaster of the Year and served as NAFB President in 1992. Additionally, Taylor has been a long-time supporter of the NAFB Foundation, serving as President since 1997. Taylor is also currently serving his first term as a Montana State Senator.

Gene Millard, NAFB Emeritus member, former Farm Director/General Manager at KFEQ Radio in St. Joseph, Missouri, and head of Millard Family Farms, Inc., has been and continues to be a great farm communicator and ambassador. In 1990 Gene received the NAFB's Dix Harper Meritorious Service Award and served as the NAFB Interim Executive Director in 2004. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Citizens Bank and Trust and as Chairman of the Board of Golden Triangle Energy.

Please join us in celebrating these two deserving recipients by registering for the NAFB Convention at www.nafb.com.
